REFLECTIONS . . .

DEDICATION

John C. Brown

The El Pájaro Staff of 1975 dedicate this book to you, Mr. Brown, because of your faith, your hard work, and your dreams.

Your DREAMS, because Costa Christian School had its start in your dreams, which you were then able to communicate to others.

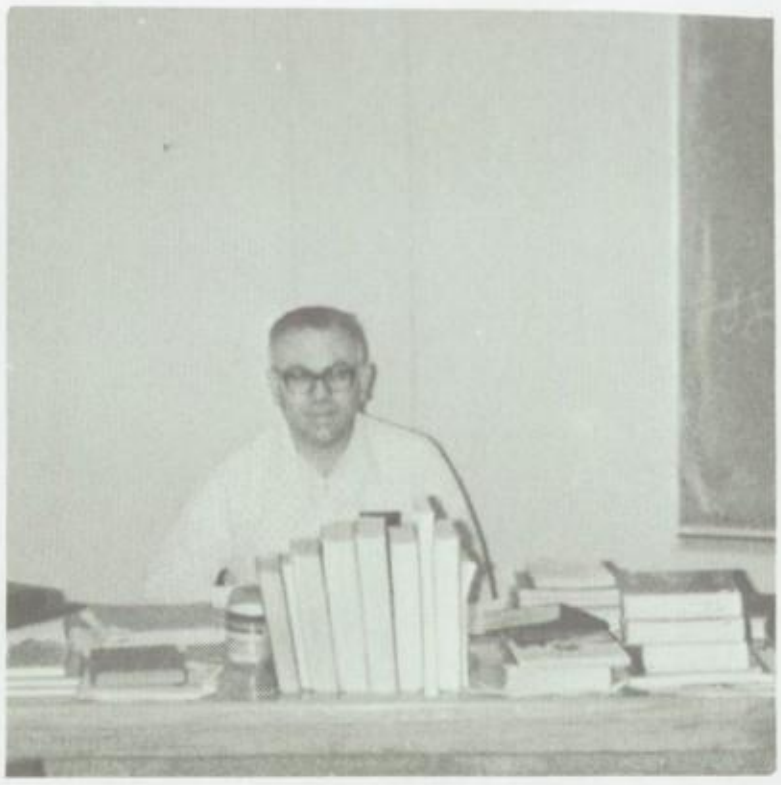
Your HARD WORK, because of your efforts as first president of the board of directors; because of the labor you contributed to the building of our first campus; and because of your time given as administrator and as teacher.

Your FAITH, because you have never doubted that the school would succeed. We have learned that it is your faith in God that has upheld your faith in the school.

Accept our thanks, then, for your faith, your hard work, and your dreams, for these have brought God's blessing through you to us, in the opportunity to attend Costa Christian School.

Paul's got the ball again?

Stop the gab-fest...



That barber really skinned me this time!

It's got to be around here somewhere!

Administrator's Message

I CONGRATULATE the students of C.C.S. for their varied interests, enthusiasm, and willingness to "tackle" new problems.

The old frontiers are gone, but there are new frontiers in the fields of science and industry. Yet, the greatest frontiers are the areas concerned with the mind and the spirit.

Our forefathers were wise in stating that religion, morality, and knowledge were essential to good government. The solution to all problems of mankind is the continued advancement of Christian Education.

As important as your task in school is, there are other things just as vital: (1) a real purpose in life; (2) a willingness and determination to stay with a job until it is done; (3) a resolution to be kind to everyone; (4) a willingness to be loyal to God, family, friends, employers.

My personal efforts for the future of Costa Christian School shall be a continued concern in contributing to your general welfare in the tools of learning, and practice in creating a Christian environment. May each of you walk with God as your help, guide, and strength. May each be servant one to another.

Sincerely,

Thomas Hardy

Our sincere thanks to Our staff, Mrs. Hougey (our supervisor) Mr. Whitfield and his photography class. We never would have gotten a yearbook without their help.

Student Lectureship

Our first annual Student Lectureship was held the last day of school before mid-winter vacation. Under the leadership of Victor Rodriguez, students prepared for and conducted most of the program, leading songs and prayers and giving talks. There were also boys' and girls' student panel discussions. As a special treat, Mr. Rodriguez and Mr. Hillman gave a skit about a telephone call from heaven. Mr. Rodriguez also spoke to us.

And then the all-school pot-luck. Um-m-m, was it good.

HARVEST...

The Folk Group, HARVEST, had its start during the fall semester, 1973. Now completing its second year, the group has proved to be very popular. With a repertoire which includes both sacred and secular numbers, they have sung at youth gatherings, adult meetings, a wedding, and a fiftieth wedding celebration. Left to right, they are Carol Brown, Greg Stevens, Sandy Hougey, Jeanne Gibson, and Loran Brown.

Senior Privilege Day

Privileges? Of course seniors get 'em! All it takes is perseverance, responsibility, integrity, courtesy, maturity, etc. Among their privileges is a day off from school to go somewhere just for fun. (You wonder how this crew rated? So do we!)

A.W.C.C.S.
Associated Women for Costa Christian School

A.W.C.C.S. was formed in May of 1970 for the purpose of raising funds to be used for Costa Christian School and to promote good will for the school. Much work and many hours are donated by A.W.C.C.S. to fulfill these goals.

Membership is open to any (she need not have a child at Costa Christian) who has loyalty to the purposes of A.W.C.C.S. and pays her membership donation of $12.00 per year. Membership donations go directly into the Teacher's Salary Fund to help defray the cost of tuition.

Meetings are held the first Thursday of every month to make plans for fund raising projects and to receive reports of past projects.

Come join hands with us who are striving to further Christian Education through Costa Christian School.
